MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
Department of Radiology

RADIOLOGY REPORT

Patient: John Doe
DOB: 01/15/1955
Date of Service: 06/15/2025
Ordering Physician: Dr. Sarah Johnson
Exam: CT Abdomen and Pelvis with Contrast

CLINICAL HISTORY: Abdominal pain, rule out appendicitis.

TECHNIQUE: CT of the abdomen and pelvis was performed with IV contrast.

FINDINGS:
The liver, spleen, pancreas, and adrenal glands are unremarkable.
No evidence of appendicitis. The appendix measures 5mm in diameter.
No free fluid or free air. No lymphadenopathy.

IMPRESSION:
1. No evidence of acute appendicitis.
2. Normal CT of the abdomen and pelvis.

Electronically signed by:
Dr. Michael Chen, MD
Board Certified Radiologist
06/15/2025 14:30

JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL
Baltimore, MD 21287

DISCHARGE SUMMARY

Patient: John Doe
MRN: 1234567
Admission Date: 03/20/2025
Discharge Date: 03/22/2025
Attending: Dr. Robert Patel

PRINCIPAL DIAGNOSIS: Acute appendicitis, status post laparoscopic appendectomy

HOSPITAL COURSE:
Patient presented to the ED with acute right lower quadrant pain.
CT confirmed acute appendicitis. Taken to OR for laparoscopic appendectomy.
Procedure was uncomplicated. Post-operative course was unremarkable.